THE FINE PRINT ABOUT OUR POLICIES, PROCEDURES, LEGAL DISCLAIMERS, & OTHER STUFF

Submitting this form confirms that you've read the fine print below, and that you understand (and agree to adhere by) how we do things. With that said... Take a moment to read them, double-check that you've completed all of the information on the front, then bring this form by the front table. If you're confident in your understanding of this form, and your math, feel free to mail it in with a check. Otherwise, just stop by, and we'll finish up in person.

MATERIALS COSTS

In addition to the tuition listed on the front of this form, classes may include additional fees for books, costumes, or other materials. Generally speaking, these costs don't add up to much. We try to let you know about this stuff up front.

MAKE-UP LESSONS

Part of what makes the Arts Center work well for our teachers is that they get paid for every lesson that is on the schedule for that week, even if the student doesn't show up. Because of this, instructors aren't paid for make up lessons (since they've already been paid).

Of course, we understand that things happen, and sometimes students have to miss. So... All of the instructors have agreed to provide one free make up lesson each semester. Generally speaking, these are offered on a Saturday, toward the end of the semester, just before our music recitals.

If any instructor misses, we'll schedule a make up as soon as possible, or offer a credit for the missed week. Make-ups (for group classes) may be scheduled, as availability permits, in another class that is both age and level appropriate.

DISCIPLINE & EXPULSION POLICY

Trinity Arts Center manages disciplinary issues according to a "three strikes" policy designed to: communicate clearly and quickly to all of the parties involved; ensure the safety of our students and faculty; and preserve a positive and healthy environment for our students and teachers.

The first occurrence of any behavioral problems will result in a conversation with the parents. After a second occurrence, the student will be expelled from class for two weeks. A third occurrence will result in immediate expulsion from class for the year.

Trinity Arts Center reserves the right to immediately expel any student who, in our estimation, represents a threat to the safety of our students or instructors.

LIABILITY RELEASE

Some activities at the Arts Center can include the risk of physical injury. You assume that risk and agree that Trinity Arts Center, our instructors, and our agents aren't liable for injuries sustained, or loss of personal property, during attendance at the center or its functions.

MEDICAL PERMISSION

In the case of injury, we'll always try to contact you first. If we can't reach you, we'll do everything we can to take care of your kids like they are our own. In your absence, we'll get them to a doctor who can make any necessary medical decisions.

PHOTOGRAPHY RELEASE

Sometimes, we use photos of our students and their families on our web site, on ads, or on other materials that help illustrate and promote what we do at Trinity Arts Center. Pictures will never be sold, licensed, or used in any other manner without express written consent from you.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Financial assistance is provided through the Trinity Arts Foundation, a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization focused on encouraging and expanding arts education and performance opportunities in the area. Funds are awarded in August and January, as available, for up to 50% of the applicable tuition for families demonstrating need and a unique level of talent and dedication in their discipline.

CANCELLATION & REFUNDS

Students may withdraw from class at any time. However, tuition is always calculated through the end of the quarter in which lessons or classes are cancelled. In addition, credits or refunds will not be provided until Jamin (not the instructor) has been notified. As I mentioned earlier, the teachers continue to be paid if the lesson is on our schedule. It's important that you let us know if you're not going to attend.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

It is extremely rare for our classes to be cancelled due to inclement weather (snow is usually cleared by the time we start classes). In the case of a cancellation, we'll send an e-mail, update our answering machine, and post a notice on the home page of the web site at trinityartscenter.com. Cancellations will be subject to our standard cancellation and refund policy (see above).

GOD IS GOOD. THE BIBLE IS TRUE. JESUS SAVES.

Trinity Arts Center is a Christian organization. Our teachers profess Jesus as Lord and adhere to the Bible as the inerrant and only Word of God. Beyond that, we may discuss and debate, but we won't divide. We welcome patrons of any faith (or lack of faith) to participate in our classes. We talk a lot of how good God is but, if you're comfortable with that, we're glad you're here. =)

Titus 3:5-7 He saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life.

Deuteronomy 32:3-4 I will proclaim the name of the Lord. Oh, praise the greatness of our God! He is the Rock, His works are perfect, and all His ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is He.

LET US KNOW

Let us know if we ever take ourselves too seriously, or seem to have lost sight of the goal -- to honor God, to encourage students, and to build an awesome and creative community of Christian artists. We promise to respond well. =)
